Jeppson's Malort 7
Chicago's local beskbrännvin — a style of bitter, wormwood-based, Swedish schnapps.

Sochu 7
Shochu is a traditional Japanese spirit first produced in the 1500s on Kyushu, Japan's largest southwestern island. Shochu is a versatile beverage customarily drunk in cocktails, as well as straight or on ice, and makes an ideal accompaniment to meals. As the shōchū is distilled just once it retains the character of the base ingredient, typically rice, barley or potato. : 91335868070

Absinthe Fountain

Order your choice of Absinthe served w/sugar cubes & iced fountain water

Copper & Kings Blance 12

Aroma: herbaceous, pastoral, subtle layering of typical absinthe notes; wormwood, hyssop, fennel open in the glass. Muscat bouquet with uniquely spicy hints of black pepper.

Taste: slightly restrained anis, faintly bitter, hint of mint, typical licorice without being overpowering or flabby. Black pepper spice. Not syrupy sweet.

Finish: super creamy mouth-feel, natural viscosity. Black pepper, fresh licorice through the back end.

Copper & Kings Lavender 12

Small batch double distillation. Non-chill filtered for an authentic uncorrupted natural flavor and natural color. Some cloudiness will be apparent at colder temperatures. A beautiful signature natural louche with a sharp burst of lavender color to start. Elegantly floral with a harmonious layering of signature absinthe notes; grande wormwood, sweet fennel and licorice. Punctuated by definitive clear lavender florals. Smooth, uniquely clean finish.

Copper & Kings Citrus 12

Small batch double distillation. Non-chill filtered for an authentic uncorrupted natural flavor and natural color. Some cloudiness will be apparent at colder temperatures. Beautiful natural, translucent, milky louche. Exotically tropical, with a harmonious layering of signature herbaceous absinthe notes; grande wormwood, sweet fennel and licorice. Punctuated by a definitive warm citrus bouquet. Smooth, lingering finish.

Copper & Kings Ginger 12

Small batch. Distilled just twice retaining concentrated layered, overt ginger spice for a novel interpretation of absinthe superior. Non-chill filtered for an authentic uncorrupted natural flavor and natural color. Some cloudiness will be apparent at colder temperatures. A beautiful signature natural translucent, milky louche. Earthy & spicy with a harmonious layering of signature absinthe herbaceous notes; grande wormwood, sweet fennel and licorice. Punctuated with a crisp, spicy ginger bite.

Duplais Blanc 13

First verte absinthe to be released in Switzerland since the 1910 ban was lifted. Recipe is based on 19th century French distiller's manual: Traité des Liqueurs et de la Distillation des Alcools by P. Duplais, which is where Absinthe Duplais takes its name. Created with wormwood and other pharmaceutical-grade herbs. Spring water from the Alps. Naturally colored unique golden green hue. Complex herbal aromatics unfurl slow wormwood, fennel, and spice. The palate is textured, rich, and creamy.
